To all Parties reading this,

I would like to thank you for considering me for the position that you have open. I would just like to say that I would rather not work with a group of people that are not actively attempting to grow their company and reach an audience that they feel could use the team's product/service. If you and your team are prepared to operate at a high level, I may indeed be the man for the job. I look forward to working with those people!

Sincerely,

Woody Allen Montilus
